- To understand the Hadith given in Part 3 of the Syllabus (Page 37)
- To understand the meanings of the Attributes of Allah given in Part 3 of the Syllabus.
- To understand Chapter 10 of The Life & Character of the Seal of Prophets

Time	Activity and Comments	Resource
15 min	AYATUL KURSI - Ask a member to recite the verse and read the translation. Ask another member to read the Commentary. Discuss the implications of this verse for the Victory of Islam given that the God of Islam is Mighty and in full control of destinies of nations – He will bring about the promised victory. Discuss the powerful attributes of Allah found in this verse which according to the Holy Prophet (saw) make this Verse the loftiest verse of the Holy Quran..	Syllabus
10 min	HADITH - Ask a member to read the Hadith and its commentary. Discuss the main message of the Hadith that good looks for women and wealth for men, though gifts from Allah, can become a source of trouble and worry. However, we learn that God does not look at appearances of beauty or wealth, but looks at and appreciates only purity of the heart and good deeds.	Syllabus
10 min	ATTRIBUTES OF ALLAH – Ask members to learn the attributes and their meanings given in Part 3 of the Syllabus. Discuss how these attributes can be adopted by us and practiced in our lives.	Syllabus
30 min	HISTORY OF ISLAM – LIFE & CHARACTER OF THE SEAL OF PROPHETS – Vol. 1 Chapter 10 – entitled “A Glance at the Makkan Life”  This is the last chapter of Volume 1 and deals with a review of the Makkan period of the life of the Holy Prophet (saw) which has been the subject of Volume 1.  This chapter also contains a discussion on the forms of revelation and how the Holy Quran began to be revealed and how it was safeguarded initially.  The initial period of the Prophetic life of the Holy Prophet (saw) in Makkah is known as the Nabwi years and the period spent in Medina known as the Hijri years and the Quranic Surahs revealed during the initial period in Makkah are known as Makki and those revealed in the latter period after migration are known as Madani	Book

This chapter also discusses the wisdom of different methods used by the Holy Prophet (saw) to spread his message when he began his mission after receiving the command from Allah to spread the message of Islam. This was followed by persecution of Muslims by Quraish which eventually led to the migration to Medina.

To develop interest of members in this chapter, read the section headings and ask members to read small portions highlighting the main message of the section.
