"Say, 'If you love Allah, follow me: then will Allah love you and forgive you your faults. And Allah is Most Forgiving, Merciful.'

Surah Al Imran v 32

20th February – Musleh Maud Day – The Promised Reformer Day

Who is (Hazrat) Musleh Maud/the Promised Reformer?

Second Khalifa of Ahmadiyyat, Hazrat Mirza Bashir-ud-Din Mahmud Ahmad (may Allah be pleased with him) the eldest son of the Promised Messiah (may Allah be pleased with him). His birth fulfilled the Divine prophecy and is blessed to be Musleh Maud, the Promised Reformer.

Why do we celebrate?

Each year on 20th February, Musleh Maud Day is celebrated to commemorate the fulfilment of this magnificent Divine Prophecy.

Divine Prophecy

The prophecy was lengthy and filled with 52 separate qualities that would be possessed by the child, who would be known as 'Musleh Maud' - the Promised Reformer. The child would be a direct sign of Allah's Mercy; he would be handsome and pure; he would be intelligent; he would be blessed with a holy spirit and would be free from all impurity; the son would be the light of Allah; he would heal the many ills of this world through his Messianic qualities; he would be meek of heart; he would convert three into four; he would be the means of procuring the release of those held in bondage and his fame would spread to the ends of the earth. Thereafter he would be raised to his spiritual station in heaven.'
