Online Classes

Starting January!

The online classes will run throughout the week, providing comprehensive coverage of all 8 modules from the National New Ahmadi Department syllabus. Delivered via Zoom, these sessions will be led by missionaries based in the UK. Each semester spans three months, focusing on one module at a time. These classes are designed to complement the existing in-person or online tutorial sessions conducted by local missionaries. Please register to attend the New Ahmadi Online Classes via the following link:
