Every Word of Wisdom is the Lost Property of a Muslim

Narrated by Ḥaḍrat Abū Hurairah, Allāh be pleased with him: I heard the Prophet of Allāh (peace and blessings of Allāh be on him) say: "The word of wisdom is the lost property of a Muslim, so that wherever he finds it, he should take it, as he is the most entitled to it." (Tirmidhī)

CONDITIONS OF BAI'AT

7TH CONDITION

HOLY QURAN VERSE

And walk not in the earth haughtily, thus the earth, nor canst thou reach the mountains in height.

17:38

HOLY QURAN VERSE

This verse tells us not to be proud or arrogant. Allah reminds us that no matter how important or powerful we think we are, we cannot break the earth beneath our feet or become as tall and great as the mountains. It teaches that human beings are small and limited, so we should walk through life with humility, not pride. True greatness belongs only to Allah.

HADITH

Hadrat 'Abdullah Bin Mas'ud ra narrated that the Holy Prophet (sa) said, 'One whose heart has arrogance as little as a small grain will not be allowed to enter Paradise.' One man said, 'O Prophet of Allah! Man wishes to be well-dressed, to have good shoes on, and to look good.' The Holy Prophet (sa) replied, 'This is not arrogance,' adding, 'Allah the Almighty is Elegant and likes elegance, that is, He likes beauty. Real arrogance is when man rejects what is true, considers people lowly, holds them in contempt and treats them badly.'

Sahih Muslim

REFLECTION TASKS

- 1) How far do I indulge in pride and vanity?
- 2) What do I need to do in order to make sure arrogance does not attack me again?
- 3) How far have I achieved this?

QUESTIONS

- 1) Why should we not exult over our achievements?
- 2) Why is a proud person's life generally bitter?

REFLECTING ON HUZOOR'S WORDS

One must not take it lightly that we accepted the condition at the time of making Bai'at that we would not indulge in pride and vanity. Give up arrogance in its entirety. It is not easy. Arrogance has many diverse forms. Satan attacks mankind utilising different methods. It is an extremely terrifying state! Actually, it is only through the Grace of Allah that one can be saved from it. Therefore, in the seventh condition, the Promised Messiah has also introduced a way to obtain Allah's Grace. He said if we try to break away from the habit of arrogance, but do not fill in the emptiness with humility and meekness, then arrogance would attack us again. Therefore, adopt humbleness! Allah the Almighty loves the way of humility.

(Conditions of Bai'at p.122)

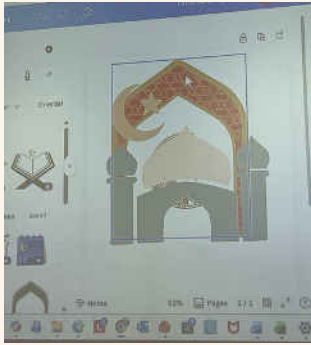

And the servants of the Gracious God are those who walk on the earth in a dignified manner, and when the ignorant address them, they say, 'Peace!'

(25:64)

Thank You 😊

Dear Khansa,

Thank you so much for your incredibly warm welcome and hospitality yesterday. Both Lauren and I truly enjoyed meeting you all and introducing fostering. It was such a kind and thoughtful invitation.

It was such a lovely surprise to see the young ladies I had met many years ago whilst working in their primary school. Moments like that really remind me of the lasting connections we make and the difference we can all have in children's lives, connections that stay with them forever.

Thank You 😊

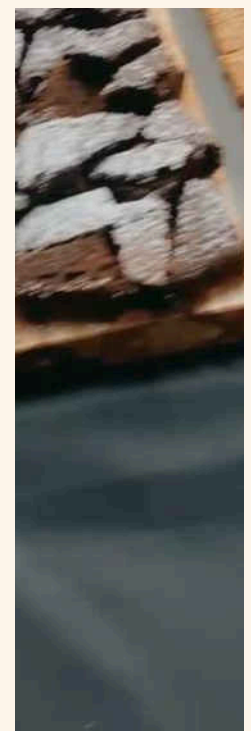

We are excited to be in touch regarding a prize donation for our Black History Month poetry competition and look forward to celebrating the amazing talent of our young people together. Thank you all again for getting on board with us to ensure our talented young people feel appreciated and recognised.

Please do pass on our heartfelt thanks to everyone who came yesterday and made us feel so welcome. We are here if anyone wants to explore fostering any further or have any questions, please do tell them to get in touch.

I want to say the biggest thank you to you personally for being such an inspiring foster carer. Seeing you with your young lady yesterday was truly heartwarming and a wonderful reminder of the incredible impact our foster carers have.

Kindest regards,
Lee-Ann and Lauren
